Bathroom – It's where you wash off all the dirt and where your play toys like to squirt

Bedroom – Lay down your head and close your eyes, it's the next clue to your big surprise

Door – Open and shut all day long, let's move this game right along

Couch – It holds a few bottoms but it's not the floor, hold on, can we squeeze on just one more

Hall – Long and straight, doors open onto me. You think I'm not important but I am, you'll see

TV – you watch your favorite show on me, sometimes you pay, sometimes it's free

Light switch – on or off is the debate. Hurry up, it's getting late

Chair – sit up straight your momma asks, don't blame me it's my only task

Table – it's where you gather with such and such, but don't eat too much

Kitchen – cooking, cleaning, and much more, keeping me clean is such a chore

Refrigerator – to keep me cool, keep the door shut. Something good might be inside if you're in luck
